

Conrad W. John

Junior Partner

Optimistic. Reliable. Adaptable.

Conrad's strategic game plan is to determine the facts quickly, identify the core issues, and present and provide solutions to get the desired results.

CONRAD IS A TRAINED ATTORNEY WHO IS READY TO BE ON DEFENSE FOR HIS CLIENTS.

Conrad is a Junior Partner on the Commercial Litigation, Labor, Employment, Investigations, and Insurance Defense Teams. He brings seven years of experience where he has developed a versatile and collaborative work style. Conrad received his J.D. from the Texas Southern University, Thurgood Marshall School of Law.

Conrad's drive stems from his family. His parents' sacrifice and dedication to his education and personal development have had a lasting impact on his work ethic and drive. His family is from Sierra Leone, West Africa, and he is a first-generation college graduate and attorney. Conrad comes from a culturally diverse family; his experiences have shaped how he approaches life with humility and treats people respectfully.

Conrad sets himself apart from other attorneys in Commercial Litigation, Labor and Employment, Personal Injury Litigation, and Insurance Defense by being open and personal. He strives to ensure he is attentive to his client's concerns to provide prompt and effective responses to said concerns.

Conrad is an effective attorney who remains dependable, precise, and resilient. His experience gives him valuable insight into how opposing counsel builds their cases, which he uses to develop successful strategies for his clients.

Conrad puts the client first with frequent updates and strategy sessions to make them feel at ease through resolution and to effectively get the results his client needs.
