

Jordan Carter

Associate

Analytical. Determined. Organized.

"Jordan strives for excellence in everything she does. She is an incredible writer and litigator, having worked in all aspects of criminal and civil law.."

Jordan delivers results. Her tenacity provides the focus necessary to achieve desired outcomes under any circumstance. She boldly addresses legal issues and takes full ownership of every project she undertakes.

Growing up in Mississippi, her parents instilled a drive in her by always reminding her the sky is the limit and there is nothing she cannot accomplish or do. Jordan developed a determination to break every ceiling placed above any woman or person of color. She brings this same grit to every case, regardless of the challenge. Jordan earned her law degree from J.D., DePaul University College of Law, in 2019.

What sets Jordan apart from other attorneys is her diligence in preparation for various legal tasks such as hearings, depositions, and trials. Having represented various clients in general liability cases, premises liability, and dram shop, Jordan clearly understands how to meet the client's needs and obtain the best resolution for each case. She learned that attention to details led her to obtain favorable rulings and the ability to navigate the courtroom and beyond.

Jordan has worked on both sides, civil and criminal, and she understands the needs and wants of both the plaintiff and the defense. She believes in handling tasks head-on and understands the need to communicate effectively and the importance of deadlines. Jordan has a dedication to the client, which empowers her to negotiate for them. She uses her legal abilities to create a plan specific to the case file, warranting the best possible resolution.

Jordan Carter is a go-getter; her background allows her to bring a sophisticated, confident, and assertive approach to legal practice. Her ability to hold herself accountable in good and challenging times sets her apart. Her experience in the courtroom makes her a force to be reckoned with in any trial or hearing.
