Blaine Adams
Associate

Professional. Driven. Dedicated.

Blaine is a dynamic attorney renowned for his unwavering client advocacy and ability to deliver innovative legal solutions to complex challenges. With eight years of experience spanning corporate law, financial restructuring, and high-stakes litigation, he's the go-to strategist for clients seeking clarity and results in the most intricate legal matters.

BLAINE IS THE PROBLEM-SOLVER.

Blaine leverages eight years of corporate legal practice to deliver tailored solutions through his keen insight, strategic planning, and legal expertise. His proficiency in cutting-edge research techniques has established him as an exceptional researcher. Blaine's diverse experience spans industries like oil and gas, hospitality, and insurance, where he has successfully guided companies ranging from large hedge funds to small businesses through complex restructuring and crafted robust defense strategies for national insurance companies. Renowned for his ability to grasp both the broader perspective and the finer details, Blaine thrives under pressure and is widely recognized as a trusted strategist.

From representing Fortune 500 companies to nonprofits in both federal and state courts, Blaine consistently delivers tailored strategies and winning results. His career includes national bankruptcy cases, government litigation, insurance defense, labor and employment law, and real estate transactions. Whether in New York or Texas, Blaine expertly navigates high-profile, high-stakes environments with precision.

A Harvard Law School graduate, Blaine built his legal foundation in Manhattan before relocating to Dallas, where he expanded his expertise. Licensed in Texas as of 2023, he continues to tackle new challenges with a combination of leadership, research, and legal acumen that sets him apart.

Clients trust Blaine for his ethical judgment, clear communication, and ability to build lasting relationships. His commitment to excellence in insurance disputes, labor and employment law, and financial restructuring makes him a trusted legal partner and a force to be reckoned with.
