

William Wallace III

Associate

Diligent. Reliable. Determined.

William is known for his unique blend of legal, business, and policy expertise in commercial litigation and insurance defense. With a relentless dedication to client success, he combines strategic insight with meticulous preparation to provide effective, results-driven representation.

WILLIAM BRINGS IT

William approaches each case with an assertive, detail-oriented strategy, believing that thorough preparation and a deep understanding of case specifics are essential for achieving successful outcomes. He prioritizes clear communication, ensuring that every client comprehends their case strategy and potential outcomes, which fosters trust and strong working relationships.

William earned his Juris Doctor and Master of Business Administration from Southern University Law Center, where he was a member of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity and received the prestigious CALI Award for achieving the highest grade in Legal Writing & Analysis II. He further distinguished himself as a participant in the AbbVie Trial Academy. William enhances his legal expertise with a robust business perspective, backed by dual bachelor's degrees in Economics and Pan-African Studies from Clemson University. This unique combination of legal analysis and business insight enables him to effectively tackle complex issues in his practice.

Throughout his career, William has gained extensive experience as a Legislative Aid for Louisiana Senator, Regina Barrow, where he researched industry regulations and contributed to various legislative initiatives. He has also supported contract, and intellectual property matters as a Summer Associate and served as a Student Attorney at the Southern University Law Center, successfully managing expungement cases and advocating for client rights. His role as a Student Advocate with the Louis A. Berry Institute for Civil Rights and Justice further honed his advocacy skills, allowing him to conduct civil rights research and actively contribute to justice reform efforts. This diverse background equips William with a well-rounded perspective and a strong commitment to advancing his clients' interests.

William's approach is anchored in thorough research, strategic thinking, and clear communication. His JD/MBA background provides him with a dual perspective of legal analysis and business insight, making him adept at handling complex issues that require a deep understanding of regulatory and commercial implications. With a client-centered focus and a commitment to excellence, William ensures that no detail is overlooked, building trust and delivering outcomes that align with his clients' goals.
